

Curriculum vitae

Thomas Georg Philipp Grünewald, M.D., Ph.D.

* 27.04.1980, married, two children

Academic record

- 2000 – 2007 Study of medicine and philosophy in Würzburg (Germany) with clinical rotations in Hamburg and Berlin, Niigata (Japan), Philadelphia (USA), Buenos Aires (Argentina), Sheffield and Newcastle upon Tyne (UK)
- 2006 Interim exam in philosophy; very good
- 2007 State exam in medicine; very good
- 2008 M.D. thesis (Dr. med.), Institute for Clinical Biochemistry and Pathobiochemistry, University of Würzburg (Prof. Elke Butt & Prof. Ulrich Walter); summa cum laude
- 2012 Ph.D. thesis in „Medical Life Science and Technology“, Technische Universität München (TUM), TUM Graduate School and TUM Children’s Cancer Research Center (Prof. Stefan Burdach); passed with distinction
- 2018 Habilitation and venia legendi in Experimental Pathology, Institute of Pathology, LMU Munich (Prof. Thomas Kirchner)

Positions

- 2008 – 2009 Resident physician, University Children’s Hospital of the TUM, Munich
- 2012 – 2014 Postdoctoral fellowship with Dr. Olivier Delattre, INSERM Unit 830 “Genetics and Biology of Cancers”, Institut Curie Research Center, Paris
- 2014 – present Principal investigator of the Max-Eder Research Group for Pediatric Sarcoma Biology and resident physician at the Institute of Pathology of the LMU Munich (Prof. Thomas Kirchner)

Most important honors and awards

- 2002 – 2007 German National Academic Foundation (Studienstiftung d. deut. Volkes)
- 2004 Young investigator research grant, University of Würzburg
- 2005 1st price of the “PromoMed-Congress”, University of Würzburg
- 2009 Award for the best M.D. thesis in oncology, University of Würzburg
- 2010 – 2011 Own position grant of the German Research Foundation (DFG)
- 2012 – 2014 Research Fellowship of the German Research Foundation (DFG)
- 2015 International Research Award of the German Sarcoma Conference
- 2016 Gerhard-Domagk-Award for cancer research
- 2016 Kind-Philipp-Award of the German Society for Pediatric Oncology and Hematology (GPOH)
- 2016 – present Max-Eder Research Group grant from the German Cancer Aid
- 2017 Award for outstanding teaching, Faculty of Medicine, LMU Munich